SNOW 1500

1500W snow machine

This snow machine is capable of reproducing the snow effect. The extraordinary effect is obtained thanks to a very light foam, looking like snowflakes, which dissolves after touching the ground. If the machine is used outdoors the flakes, carried by the wind, will appear even more similar to a real snowfall and will cover a larger area. On the back the LEDs illuminate the tank showing the current liquid level.

current liquid level.

The tank can contain up to 2 liters of specific liquid.

A wireless remote control is available to operated from a distance without cables.
